

Packaging - Processing protection against contaminative agents

It is a form-fill-seal type machine, which produces airtight packages with three seals starting from a reel of plastic heat-sealable packaging material. The machine is suitable for packaging granular or powdered products, with special attention to the aesthetics of the package.

PFM Zenith Inox

Packaging - Processing
Bid on Equipment
1-847-683-7720
www.bid-on-equipment.com

Zenith also allows to attain square bottom bags with central or lateral back seal

POLAR:
a special microprocessor
controls all functions and makes the use of the machine simple and fast

Examples of packagable products

Main standard features:

- Machine structure especially designed against infiltrations and corrosive agents.
- Electronic temperature control with +/-2° C error.
- PLC-controlled functions with programmable keyboard.
- Forming box with fast release system for extremely fast format changeover;
- Material feeding by means of self-centering film pulling belts with pneumatic opening.
- Intermittent sealing system with crimpers made of special alloy.
- Film pulling system by means of high adherence motorized roller.